

Melissa Nickelson, Personal Life Coach

SPEAKING TOPICS

- Divorce Recovery
- Choosing to Be Happy
- Empowerment & Life Lessons
- Body Image
- More

Reviews

"Melissa Nickelson is an impactful, inspiring speaker who knows how to reach the heart of her audience and challenge them to see their true value."

*Julie Eastman,
Co-Founder of Inside Out*

"Melissa Nickelson is a warm, engaging and dynamic speaker. Her insights help women work through life changes to find fulfillment and happiness."

*Pamela Schied
Principal, Foresight Communications Group*

Melissa Nickelson is a public speaker and Certified Mindset for Success Coach who works one-on-one with clients in her private office or via telephone. As a personal life coach, she specializes in working with those who are facing or considering life-changing choices. Her clients include those who are encountering everything from divorce recovery to career change to figuring out what's next. She is a member of the ICF (International Coaching Federation), the Tarrant County Family Law Bar Association, The Texas Family Law Foundation, the National Speakers Association (NSA) North Texas Chapter, the NSA Academy and serves on the board of directors for Inside Out, an annual Christian conference for teen girls. In 2012, her life coaching practice was named one of the Top Tarrant County Women-Owned businesses.

As a sought-after inspirational and motivational speaker, Melissa is invited to serve on panels and present as a guest or keynote speaker at conferences on topics that include: divorce recovery, choosing to be happy, empowerment, life lessons, body image and more. She has spoken at women's conferences, State Bar of Texas events, Advanced Family Law seminars, business conventions and charity events, including: Guide to Good Divorce, Colonial Country Club, InsideOut Conference, Whitley Penn Engage, Texas Association of Court Administrators and more.

Book Melissa to speak at your next event by emailing m@melissanickelson.com or calling 817.732.5267.
Learn more at www.melissanickelson.com.